Dear Mr. Langworthy:

I have your most kind and interesting invitation.

However, now approaching eighty-nine, and still recuperating from a major operation, my fishing journeys are over. Nevertheless, I deeply appreciate your thinking of me, and with you good luck.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Herbert Hoover
The Waldorf Towers

I'm sure you are literally paper-snowed under with the nation's best wishes for your recovery.

Let me add my personal desire for such a come-back!

And, the "Board of Directors" of that group of trout pursuers, barbershoppers known as The Buckaroosters, have asked me to hand-color, prepare and deliver to you Certificate of Membership Number 1 making you a Member in Good Standing.

You are our first and only Honorary Buckarooster and we only wish you could be with us to wade the beautiful Boulder River beneath towering mountains, golden sunshine and baby blue skies this September 6th Stag.

Thanks so much for your acknowledgment of the Rooster Invitation dated June 8, 1963. Your original letter to "The Prezz" will be posted on the Buckaroost Bulletin Board come Stag-time.
